

Diary of Reading Events

Term 1 September/ October

We start the school year off with a whole school author day – a chance to fully immerse ourselves in a day of book related, exciting learning.

In 2016 we celebrated the life of Roald Dahl by dressing up, reading books, writing stories, creating wonderful works of art and solving 'Dahltastic' Maths challenges.

Who will we be celebrating in 2017? Come back nearer the time to find out!

Poetry Recital

Over half term all children have the opportunity to learn a poem to be recited for their class. Some will be shared across the school at our special Gold Star assembly.

Term 2 Book Fair

Come and browse books, and maybe get ahead with your Christmas shopping, while waiting for your child's consultation. The school benefits from every purchase made.

Term 3 January/February – Winter Read-in

Children and parents are invited to come to school in the early evening to enjoy a range of short stories, picture books and poems read by members of staff in a cosy atmosphere.

Term 4 March – World Book Day

An opportunity for children, and staff, to come to school dressed as their favourite book character. During the day the children will take part in special book related activities. Donations to Book Aid.

Book Fair

Come and browse books while waiting for your child's consultation. The school benefits from every purchase made.

Term 5 April/ May – Extreme Reading Competition

Bring in a photograph of a strange and exciting place where you were reading over the holidays. This competition will run over the Easter holidays with prizes for the best photographs.

May/June - Readathon

A chance for children to challenge themselves to read more / different books/ a series etc. This event will take place over a few weeks during and after half term.

Term 6 June/July – Summer Read-out

Parents and children can come and enjoy our beautiful school fields and listen to a range of short stories, picture books and poems read by members of staff.
